

What do you value about the area?

The vast majority of residents value the rural identity, open spaces and services such as the school and medical centre. They want these conserved.